Recent Discoveries and Staff Favorites

CHASSELAS / FENDANT, CHÂTEAU D'AUVERNIER, Neuchâtel, Switzerland, 2010

A delicious, refreshing, lively and bone-dry white. This lighter style wine features aromas and flavors of quince, lime zest and crushed granite. Shows green pear on the generously long and dry finish. Fred Gerber

Bin 605 $45

☀ CHARDONNAY, GRGICH HILLS ESTATE, Napa Valley, 2008

White peach, hazelnut, ginger and floral honey on the nose and palate. Offers a sexy sweetness on entry, then shows moderate density but good lift in the middle. Intriguing soil tones contribute to an impression of subtle complexity. Gained in weight and harmony as it opened in the glass. Steve Tanzer

Bin 135 $69 or Half Bottle Bin 2015 $39

CHARDONNAY, PULIGNY-MONTRACHET, CHARTRON ET TRÉBUCHET, Burgundy, France, 2009

Lively apple, peach and citrus notes. Lightly oaked, letting the minerals and acidity shine. The best Puligny-Montrachet from this producer in several vintages. Fred Gerber

Bin 413 $89 or by the Glass $19.50

☀ PINOT NOIR, WALTER HANSEL, Estate, Russian River, Sonoma, 2009

The 2009 Pinot Noir Estate, which comes from the lowest elevation vineyards, was made primarily from Rochioli clonal selections. It possesses a deep ruby hue as well as sweet notes of raspberries, spring flowers and blueberries, medium body, gorgeous fruit, elegance and fresh acids. This wine should drink nicely for 6-10 years. Robert Parker

Bin 879 $79

TEMPRANILLO, MARQUÉS DE RISCAL, RESERVA, Rioja, Spain, 2009

Complex, aromatic bouquet of red berries, dried cherry, saffras, tobacco and cedary oak. On the palate, dark fruits are joined by mounting vanilla and oak spice character. Packs a solid punch and finishes with very good spicy persistence. Steve Tanzer

Bin 861 $45 or by the Glass $12.50

SYRAH BLEND, CHÂTEAU MATTES-SABRAN, Cuvée Chevreuse, Corbières, France, 2007

The Château's flagship cuvée, produced only in superior vintages, is a CUISTOT EXCLUSVE! A blend of 40% Syrah, 30% Grenache and 30% Mourvedre, it sees 18 months in barrel, 50% new. Hugely dense, opaque, dark wine stuffed with ripe, dark berry fruit and vanilla oak nuances. Rich on entry, with a rounded, creamy fruity texture, which develops into a voluptuous midpalate. Fred Gerber

Bin 1062 $65 or by the Glass $17.50

Best Deal on the List

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, MAYACAMAS, Mount Veeder, Napa Valley, 2004

I have been a fan of these intensely flavored, vibrant wines for a long, long time. Mayacamas, established in 1941, is a true mountain winery with vineyards from 1800 to 2400 feet elevation. The massive and rich 2004 cabernet bursts with red and black cherry flavors. These wines age beautifully and I do recommend decanting to bring out the full potential of this classic Mount Veeder cabernet. Fred Gerber

A Remarkable Champagne! As we did with our acclaimed Historic Series Madeiras, our goal was to create a wine of great character and typicity, but at an affordable price. To this end, we carefully selected lots with the unique depth, perfume and finesse of Le Mesnil. Beautifully balanced and wonderfully nuanced now, it will develop even greater complexity with further aging.

A phenomenal bargain. The Rare Wine Co.

Subtle aromas of pineapple, nutmeg and crushed stone. Rich, supple and enveloping, with a silky, elegant texture and a very tender quality for young grand cru riesling. There's a touch of sweetness here, but firm spiciness and mineral acidity give this good grip.

Steve Tanzer

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

These wines are often referred to as being amongst the very best and most sought after in the world. Located in the village of Vosne-Romanée, the domaine was given its name by the Prince of Conti in 1760. The plot Romanée-Conti was first planted to vines in the 12th century by the monks of Saint Vivant with wild pinot noir from the local forests. Cuistot is proud to offer a selection of Romanée-Conti for your pleasure:

Margaux's second wine, the 2004 Pavillon Rouge du Chateau Margaux, may turn out to be outstanding. Its deep ruby/purple hue is accompanied by fleshy notes of black currants, cherries, smoke, earth, and spring flowers. Lovely, ripe, and opulent, it is best consumed during its first 10-15 years of life. Robert Parker

Very pure aromas of blackberry, raw currant, menthol, shoe polish and licorice, all lifted by a floral nuance... dense and mouthfilling for young Ducru. The floral, very fresh cabernet dominates today but this distinctly modern style of Ducru shows no hard edges. Finishes with broad, horizontal, toothcoating tannins and excellent spine. Steve Tanzer

2080	CHÂTEAU GRUAUD LAROSE, GRAND CRU	2005	175
------	----------------------------------	------	-----

Full-blown aromas of raspberry liqueur, dark chocolate and leather. Large-scaled, chewy and rich but with a fine-grained texture. This is silky and fat but not heavy thanks to surprisingly fresh acidity. Flavors of blackberry, plum, tar, tobacco and earth are joined by an almost roasted note on the back end. Finishes impressively rich and long, with big but thoroughly ripe, granular tannins. Steve Tanzer

961	CHÂTEAU COS D'ESTOURNEL, GRAND CRU, 2004	Magnum	435

Under the brilliant management of young Jean-Guillaume Prats, Cos d'Estournel has been going from strength to strength. The 2004 is a blend of 74% Cabernet Sauvignon, 23% Merlot, and 3% Cabernet Franc. It is rare to find such a high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon in a Cos, and the estate tends to look at this vintage as a modern day version of 1986. The pure, precise, inky/ruby/purple-tinged 2004 offers up classic Cabernet aromas of sweet black currants intermixed with licorice, cigar tobacco, and smoky wood. Possessing crisp acidity, ripe tannin, and a medium to full-bodied, layered, textured feel, this impressive effort combines power with elegance. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2020. Robert Parker
